"As an immigrant, it was challenging for me to find support that could relate to what I was going through as an entrepreneur," says Lorephil Toledo, interVivos business mentor and CEO of Canajan Inc.. "When I was new here, I wasn't aware that there was a lot of support and I could ask for help if I needed assistance. Now, this is my time to give back to those who need support, and I am willing to do it repeatedly."

Eleven mentors and eleven protégés will engage in a series of one-on-one 7-minute speed-rotation conversations to connect and discuss their goals and expectations. Following the event, participants will receive a Google form via email to rank their preferences. Based on these choices, interVivos will finalize the matches in September.

interVivos mentorship program strives to be affordable and accessible to all. Protégés can select their fee ranging from $55 to $75 based on financial circumstances.
