

Media invited to unique election forum for Albertans seeking respectful civil discourse

October 6, 2025 (amiskwaciwâskahikan | Edmonton) — Media are invited to attend A Municipal Affair — an atypical, non-partisan election forum hosted by interVivos to encourage respectful conversation and community connection for Albertans ahead of the municipal election.

Event Details

Ticket Link: interVivos Presents: A Federal Affair

Date: Wednesday, October 8; 5:30 p.m. — 9:00 p.m. (MDT)

Location: Double Dragon (inside Fu's Repair Shop), 10524 Jasper Ave, Edmonton, AB T5J 1Z7

Forum speakers: Sarah Chan, Scarlet Bjornson, Danielle Miller and Rachel de Vos

More than a debate stage, local community leaders will lead conversation with attendees to spark engagement and a wider sense of understanding between community members. — to understand why Edmontonians feel the way they do about our political landscape.

Reflecting on what Edmontonians care most about, group discussions will include affordability and taxes, safety, local economy and innovation, and accountability.

interVivos President Zohreh Saher is available for an interview on-site or by request.

-30-

Media Contact:

Cole Buhler

Media Relations Coordinator

pipikwan pêhtâkwan

cole@pipikwanpehtakwan.com

About interVivos:

interVivos is a group of volunteers in Edmonton who cultivate leadership and make an impact in the community. interVivos engagement events and mentorship programs have brought people together from all backgrounds since 2006.